PERSONAL.—Miss host of the Elliott House, Hillsboro, Ohio, Col. Geo. W. Luckey, is stopping at the Southgate.

ANN DAVY, for daily disturbing the neighborhood in which she resides, was fined one dollar and costs by the Police Judge, yesterday.

BEN NOON, at noon last Sunday, got on a bit of a spree, for which offense he was mulcted in the sum of $3 and accompaniments, by his honor, Judge Lowe.

GEORGE HELP came home tight last Saturday night and thrashed his better half. She appeared against him yesterday, and had him "put through" to the tune of three days in the County Jail.

ANX NEIGHBOR, who has the reputation of being a very bad neighbor, was before Judge Lowe, yesterday, charged with being drunk Sunday, and running against a gentleman on Fifth street. Andy was let off with $5 and costs.

SEVERAL white-washers were committed to the city prison for non-payment of fines. As the city buildings are soon to be white-washed, his honor remarked that they could be offered an opportunity to work out their fine at the rate of seventy-five cents per day.

SHORT OF FUNDS.—Rather a good looking young man was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday, upon a charge of being drunk. He stated that it was his first appearance at the bar, and asked to be dealt with gently. His honor imposed a fine of the costs only. When he came to pay up, he found to his astonishment that he only had the sum of thirty cents, all told. He was excused.

The lad, Alfred Ray, who was arrested on suspicion of setting fire to the residence of Mr.
Frank, on Mt. Auburn, last Friday night, was honorably discharged by Judge Lowe yesterday. Alfred brought witnesses to the stand who testified that he was in bed at the Jefferson House in this city on the evening of the conflagration; that he went to bed at eleven o'clock, and did not leave his room until late next morning.

PASTOR has heretofore swayed away to foreign watering places, our well-to-do people every summer. An attempt has been made to provide an attraction at home, and some of our Cincinnati capital has been invested in fitting up in modern style, a spot in Ohio, which is deemed just the place for the gay to be glad, the afflicted to get healthy, and the tired citizen to recruit—we mean the "Ohio White Sulphur Springs," near Delaware.

The opening party for this season will be given on Thursday next. Round trip ticket, up and back, furnished for $5. Hours of starting, 6 o'clock and 8 o'clock, A. M.

The celebrated author, Charles Dickens, while in Cincinnati several years since, became our debtor for sundry drafts at sight of western character, the first instalment of recompense for which he gave us in his "Notes" at short date. His "Household Words" having proved as good as his bond for nine years, an extension of our favor has been granted him, and now we freely take his paper "All the year round."

A remittance of the first monthly quarto of good things, under a new arrangement with him, was received by fast mail on Saturday through the American agent, J. M. Emerson & Co., New York. Such interchanges tell the "Story of our lives from year to year," and will be not only a "Tale of two cities," but be the delight of all the villages in the land.

Is it not fair to conclude, if the five hundred excursionists from the West, who entered on a warm day the wine vaults of Nicholas Longworth, which are at a cool temperature, carried so much heat with them as to occasion an exclamation from the French Superintendent Mons. Fournier: "Vraiment, dear Sir, Missur Longworth loss to day three hundred dollars; se wine it spite!" Is it not fair to conclude, that on emerging from the cold damp vaults, after their procession, greasy, lighted dips in hands, the same five hundred brought out the cold which has pervaded our atmosphere? If so, society in Cincinnati sympathizes with the cold reception of the visitors in the deep vaults of N. L. One wag, certainly not one of forte, on leaving the grounds, remarked: "I saw the process of putting the corks in the bottles, but did not see any taken out."

On Thursday next an interesting re-union of the friends of the Cincinnati Orphan Asylum will take place in the big tent, now pitched on the Elm street Asylum grounds. Stanley Matthews, Esq., will deliver an address, and the usual reports will be read. The kindly-cared-for family of children at this institution will prove a source of melancholy interest to attendants. Their eloquent sadness of lot tingles the brightness of their gay hearts, and will cause their songs and sports to linger in your memory. Flowers and fruits and refreshments will be provided. Each recurring season of annual festival on these grounds awaken and begot reflection. The lessening band of managers and friends who, more than a quarter of a century ago, established this charity, assemble again to remind the present generation of the duty devolved upon them.

Perhaps this is the last anniversary on the old lot, as new grounds have been purchased on the hills in the environs of the city.

In the name of the public, we thank the ladies who have so long ministered voluntarily in this branch of truly Christian effort, and commend their successors to the constant care of the "orphans."

ishly boasted of his wealth, was robbed of all no less than thirty-four men have been shot effects of a brilliant example.

A young widow, living near Dayton, has unexpectedly become the owner of property in Virginia, valued at $50,000, the bequest of a distant relative. Lucky widow that!

A raft of 500,000 feet of choice lumber belonging to Mr. Wiggins, and which was ready to start for St. Louis, was broken into fragments, not a crib or even a bundle of lumber remaining whole.

The Farmers' Bank of Bridgeport, Conn., has a note of P. T. Barnum's for $23,000, and holds no securities therefor. The financial agent of Mr. Barnum offers 75 per cent. for the face of it.

This day two vessels containing about seven hundred men of color, will sail for Haiti from New Orleans, making the number nearly 2,000 of those who have emigrated within the last two months.

every year, he would have at thirty-one years, $650; at forty-one, $1,600; at sixty-one, $6,500; at seventy-one, $11,500.

SENTENCE FOR NOK BITING.—Judge Sanger, of the Essex county (Mass.) Court of Common Pleas, in session at Newburyport, has sentenced Abram Norris, for biting off the nose of a woman, to five years' imprisonment in the State prison.

In New York the Germans of the Steuben Society propose having a grand Fourth of July festival, consisting of a series of picnics and concerts, on the 27th, 28th and 29th of June, and the 3d of July, at Jones' Woods.

Mrs. Rayburn, the lady residing in the vicinity of Greenfield, Ohio, who some four weeks since was delivered of three children at one birth, and was afterwards taken to the County Asylum, insane, has been discharged, having entirely recovered.

A beautiful thought is suggested in Koran:
"Angels, in the grave will not question thee as to the amount of wealth thou hast left behind thee, but what good deeds thou hast done, while in the world, to entitle thee to a seat in among the blest?"

Five men were drowned in Lake Michigan, on Friday of last week, by the capsizing of a sloop, some twenty miles below the mouth of Grand River. One man, the remaining one of the unfortunate crew, clung to the wreck, and was, after much suffering, rescued from his perilous position.

The Hillsboro' (O.) Gazette of Friday, reports the explosion of the boiler of a steam saw mill at Hillsboro', in Highland County, by which the fireman, Earl Clark, was killed.
Clark allowed the water to get too low, and then—when the sides of the boiler were red-hot—pumped cold water into it.

The storm which fell upon Lake St. Croix on the 26th ult., drove the steamboat Equator, just after she had started from Prescott for Stillwater, across to the Wisconsin beach, where she became a wreck. The passengers, most of the crew, and the cargo, were safely landed five miles below Hudson.

In Barbadoes (one of the British W. I. Islands), the distinction of caste are so rigidly observed that no person, male or female, with the slightest taint of African blood, is admitted to white society. The vast increase of the mulatto population, however, threatens the downfall of the White Dynasty at no very distant day.

POLITENESS TO LADIES.—The Philadelphia Ledger says: "Defiance to the sex gives no right to occupy an unnecessary amount of room in the car, or to compel others to stand, merely that a lady may not have her crinoline crushed.
We are sorry to say that, while ladies exact all that is usually conceded to them from the other sex, they are not at all so courteous and obliging to others of their own sex. We have seen them frequently spread their dresses over the seats of the car, and make no effort to allow other ladies standing in the cars a place to sit down."

A GOOD TURN-OUT.—The Johnstown Tribune states that the Rolling Mill at that place turns out a larger yield per foot of railroad iron than has ever been manufactured in the same time by any rival establishment in the Union. Three weeks ago seven hundred and twenty-two tons were rolled from Monday until Saturday night, and last week we understand the yield was about seven hundred tons.
All this was accomplished, too, without a single extra heat. We put the Cambria Iron Works as now managed in the van of all iron enterprises this side of the Atlantic.

GARLIC SPOKEN BY SLAVES.—The Pittsburg Dispatch states that a Rev. James Sinclair, formerly a resident of the vicinity of Pittsburg, is now in charge of two Presbyterian congregations on the border between North and South Carolina. He informs us that the greater portion of the population of five counties in that part of North Carolina are of Scotch decent, and the Gaelic language is spoken even by the slaves—some of whom understand no other. Part of his address are in two Gaelic, and his father is also preaching in that language in the same vicinity. Many of the ancestors of these people were driven from Scotland during the troubles of the "Pretender" or Stuart dynasty—having been pardoned under the gallows on condition of becoming exiled to the colonies of the Carolinas. Mr. Sinclair says they are a most excellent, hospitable, quiet people.

Alexander Von Humboldt.

At a meeting of the American Geographical and Statistical Society, in New York, June 2d, the President called upon George Bancroft, who arose and addressed the meeting as follows:

I consider silence my duty this evening, not from a want of intense admiration of Humboldt—not from a want of affectionate reverence for his virtues and his memory—but because I wish to bear his memory displayed by men of science, lovers of truth, men who have made a great name for themselves throughout the world. I think you, like myself, would have preferred to have heard his praises pronounced cordially by them. But as the President has called upon
